Homework Grid P4

Please aim to complete 5 tasks by Friday 11th December 2026. You can also email photos of completed work to the class teacher or post them on our P4 Teams pages.

Writing – We have been learning how to write detailed setting descriptions. Imagine you've just stepped into a magical place. Draw a picture of it first then write a short description of what it looks, feels and sounds like. Remember to use adjectives.	Reading- Scottish Book Week- Read a book you wouldn't normally read, e.g. a genre you haven't read before, an author you haven't heard of etc. The library has a great selection to help you if you need inspiration. After reading, discuss would you read this type of book again? Why/why not?	Topic – We are focusing on the human body this term. Can you draw an outline of the human body and label either as many bones in the skeleton as you can or as many organs and body parts as you can? Maybe you could do both?
PE – you have been working on your balance skills in gym, can you give these balances a go and see how long you can hold them for? Do you improve over the course of a week? 1) Standing on 1 leg (left and right) 2) Standing on one leg and passing a small object from hand to hand. 3) Dancers pose, hold your foot with your hand behind you (Opposite hand to foot). 4) Create your own balance pose.	Numeracy – choose any of the activities below and test your numeracy skills. Addition and Subtraction - Multiplication -	Maths- This term we will be learning about expressions and equations. Here are some activities to try: Balancing sums- Challenge – Function Machines
HWB – As part of RSHP we have been learning about friendship. Can you design a picture of what a good friend might be like, please label the picture with at least 10 attributes that they would have.	Seasonal Art - Make a piece of art using seasonal events as inspiration, e.g. Halloween, Diwali, Bonfire Night, Moon Festival, Day of the Dead, Harvest Festival etc.	French – We are going to learn the parts of the body in French. Can you teach someone at home the "head, shoulders, knees and toes" song in French?
